DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 9, 13, 14, and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Soland #4,152,875. Soland discloses a revetment mat including blocks having diagonal channels 16, 17 which receive cables 18, 19 to connects the blocks to form the revetment mat. Soland thus discloses the method of arranging the blocks into a mat and then connecting the blocks by threading with a cable.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 3-8, 10-12, 15-17, 19, and 20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Soland in view of Smith #6,276,870. Soland discloses the claimed invention except for the central opening, the sleeve, and the block having male members and female members so as to be interlocking. Smith teaches that it is known to provide interlocking blocks having male members 16, 18 and female members 12, 14, a central opening 62, and a sleeve 70. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide male and female members, a central opening, and sleeves, as taught by Smith in order to provide an interlocking type block having a opening so as to reduce weight, and to provide a sleeve so as to facilitate interconnection or splicing of the connecting cables.
